OLD MAN ENDED LIFE BY GRAVES OF WIFE AND SON

Shot Himself to Death, Leaving a Pathetic Letter Telling of the Reasons That Caused His Act.

TROY, N. Y., May 25.—Old Andrew J. my summer ended and the closing season, the winter of age, is falling heavily upon me, I go to my rest. Farewell.

A. J. SMART." ing his life, and who shot himself to death over the grave of the wife he loved, will be buried by her side. Mr. Smart, who was formerly a paper manufacturer in Sand Lake, Rensselaer County, for a number of years made his home in Freeport.

Mr. Smart's great sorrow because of the death of his wife and son was known to all. Several days ago he came here to visit his brother, but he gave no intimation of his plan to kill

Mr. Smart was standing by the mounds over the grave of his wife and son last evening. Visitors to the cemetery saw the old man, his head bowed. and they passed on respecting his grief. Those who heard it thought it the sound of hunters' guns in the surrounding woods. Later Mr. Smart's body was found lying across the grave of his wife. Near him lay this letter, which told the full story of the suicide: "You ask me why? Old, weary, sick down by all that is mortal of my dear wife and son. I am in the world, but mile and son. I am in the world, but not of the world. I am of the past generation. My usefulness is at an end. Shed no tears for me. I shall rest quietly here. I can assure you I have tried to the best of my ability to live an upright, homorable life. I have tried to do my duty as I have seen and understood it. I have ever tried to brighten the lives of others and shed all the happiness I could over the lives of those about me. "Being now in the saventy-high year."

Being now in the seventy-ninth year "Being now in the seventy-ninth year of my age, by the laws of nature the end could not be far in the future, hence I anticipate it but little in time. I would have you think and know that I am in the full possession of my mental faculties. This act is but the logical result of my condition. I have always had a dread of living until my mental faculties fall and I should fall into second childhood.

"This is no sudden resolve of mine: I have contemplated it ever since the death of my son, in 1892. I write this calmly and without excitement, with the full appreciation of what I am define."

55 Down and 51 Per Week.

The Walters Burnham Pianos have reached the highest pinnacle of perfection, They Are Pianos That Are Built to Last Forever.

Walters Burnham planes have the highest grade B. & S. brass flanged repeating actions, finest selected ivory keys, finest quality full copper strings in the bass, three solid brass pedals and solid brass continuous hinges, lock and trimmings; Walters improved renowned sounding board and plate, H. B. W. improved pedal action, most perfect ever invented; extra wild fingerboard, full 7.1-3 octaves; the Walters scale, which is one of the finest and most perfect in the world. The touch is one of its main features, being soft and responsive.

They are conceded to be the finest planes ever manufactured.

In style, action, tone and construction they are unsurpassed.

They Are Guaranteed for 15 Years Delivered to Your Home Upon Payment of $5.00 What Mr. Walters says:

"I have been in the plane business for twenty-eight years, and have built thousands and thousands of highest grade planes, and must say that this new model 1906 Walters Burnham plane is in a class all by itself, and will satisfy the most critical musicians. In fact, they are creations in tone and construction and Masterpieces in Plane Building.

"In all my experience I have never seen a plane for even double the price you are going to offer them for that will equal them in tone, durability and beauty of design.

"The opportunity you are offering the public should appeal to every family wishing to possess a high-grade plane. This sale should create the biggest plane selling that your establishment has ever had."
